

MARKET STREET RAILWAY/CITY GUIDES TROLLEY TOUR

Market Street Railway and San Francisco City Guides are collaborating on a memorable vintage streetcar ride along Muni's historic F-line on Sunday, October 31 from 1-3pm. This unique tour celebrating the City's rich transit history will begin and end at the San Francisco Railway Museum at 77 Steuart Street just opposite the Embarcadero from the landmark Ferry Building.

Join tour guides Chick Chickering from City Guides and Philip Hoffman from Market Street Railway on one of our priceless "museums in motion" for their informative ride along the F-line where you will learn interesting historical facts about famous Fisherman's Wharf, traditional North Beach, the scenic Embarcadero and colorful Ferry Plaza, the busy financial district, world famous Powell & Market, classic Civic Center, imposing Mint Hill and the lively Castro.

The tour concludes with refreshments at the San Francisco Railway Museum, a program of the non-profit all volunteer Market Street Railway.

Sign up today at the early bird rate of $20 per person. This fee changes to $25 on October 1. All proceeds go to support Market Street Railway and their work to keep San Francisco's transit history alive. Refreshments included. No refunds.

Come learn how transit shaped San Francisco's history. Period or Halloween costumes are encouraged!

Sign up for the tour here: <http://www.streetcar.org/trolleytour/>

Sign up early to get the reduced rate.

